Pacific Coast Injury Group...

For close to a decade, the attorney's choice for injury care on lien.

Due to recent changes in P.I. guidelines, choosing a chiropractor as your primary source for your lien care patients makes more sense than ever before.

Choosing the right chiropractic network to help you through this changing environment has never been more important.

Pacific Coast Injury Group, your injury care partner offers you:

- Experienced Chiropractors whose practices are dedicated to personal injury care and reporting with outstanding reputations in both the legal and medical communities.
- Personal Injury Chiropractors who are aware of the changes occurring with recent P.I. rulings and are offering valuable solutions to the attorneys they work with.

Now is the time to let the experienced and competent doctors of Pacific Coast Injury Group provide the lien care you and your patients need.
